

Kevin Aimé Roche-Rochefeuille

KYOTO, JAPAN

Academic Tenure

CURRENT
2025–2028

PhD & Assistant Researcher

Kyoto University

Graduate School of Advanced Integrated Studies in Human Survivability.

Funding: DoGS SPRING Fellow, Japan Science and Technology Agency (JST).

VALEDICTORIAN

Master's & Undergraduate Degrees

University of Paris V Cité-Descartes

Psychosociology, Health, and Sports Sciences. Graduated with highest honors across both programs.

Academic Role: Tutor and Mentor for Professional Athletes (CFA Paris).

BACHELOR

Psychosociology & Communication

Université du Québec à Rimouski

Thesis & Collaborative Research in environmental education in partnership with the Montreal Biodome and 1000 Days for the Planet (Sedna IV).

Independent Practice

2017 – 2023

Private Counsel & Visual Director

Yukio Studio (www.yukio.fr)

Bespoke private counseling focusing on the optimization of mental and physical resilience for elite performers. Visual curation, photography, and digital community management for public figures.

Disciplines & Proficiencies

CORE SKILLS	Linguistics	Civic Praxis
	French & Creole (Native)	Active engagement in
	English (Full Professional, IELTS 8)	ecological disaster relief and
	Japanese (Ongoing), Spanish (Limited)	drug prevention. Qualitative research on psychedelics and artistic creativity.
	Mindfulness & Somatic Practice	Technical
	Mindful Leader Certification, Oxford (2024). Martial Disciplines: Aikido, Penchak-Silat, Tai-do.	Expert Editing (Lightroom, Photoshop), Data Analysis (R, Excel, Python). Strategy (Top 3% Global Ranking, E-sports).